What are the essentials of a first class college? The answer will justify our claim that no College for women is of higher grade than

GOUCHER COLLEGE

BALTIMORE, MARYLAND

(Formerly the Woman's College of Baltimore)

- 1. The FACULTY is composed of finely-trained teachers, men and women of refinement and judgment, who are interested in the normal and complete development of their students.
- 2. The EQUIPMENT of the College is adequate and elegant. On the scholastic side there are modern recitation rooms, laboratories, libraries, museums and other halls; on the home side there are dormitories with excellent facilities. The grounds are spacious.
- 3. The LOCATION IN BALTIMORE is advantageous. The charm of quiet culture is still a distinction of this well located city. Such institutions as the Johns Hopkins University, the Maryland Institute, the Walters Art Gallery and the Peabody Conservatory of Music enrich the life of students. Baltimore is not a place of competing diversions and distractions, and is a safe place for residence.
- 4. The CURRICULUM of the College is approved and is not an experiment. The educational value of every study is known, Much of our work is required; although generous elective courses are offered. Vocational work as such is not attempted. We have deliberately decided to emphasize the educational significance of an approved curriculum, and not spread out into fields of novelty or specialization. The course of study leads to the only degree now given by the College, Bachelor of Arts.

- 5. The ATMOSPHERE of the College is what determines its traditions, contributing to the happiness, refinement, strength of character, and ideals of the students. The atmosphere of Goucher College is healthful and helpful. There are no senseless and artificial distinctions such as rich girls and poor girls; there are sane judgments based on merit.
- 6. The PHYSICAL NEEDS of students are well provided for in a superbly equipped gymnasium, and all girls are required to take exercises prescribed by an experienced physician and teacher. Such field sports as are well adapted to growing womanhood are sanctioned and encouraged.
- 7. The REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION are practically similar to those of all good Colleges. Fifteen "points" must be presented, ("Point" and "Unit" are similar terms, and mean a full-week study pursued a whole school-year) for admission; but the "points" may be selected from a generous list. Good preparation is urged upon all who intend to apply for admission.
- 8. The PURPOSE OF THE COLLEGE is to train young women for complete womanhood. Commendations have already been received from all parts of the world. It is the intention of the trustees, administration and the friends of the College to increase facilities in such ways as to realize this purpose even more fully.

Since their mother died we have been solicitous for their welfare. But on coming from your College they have earned excellent wages at the Ford Motor Company and are sending their brother to school. I am glad that we have such a school here in our great city where the faculty guard the environment and moral welfare of the students.

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

Is known to the readers of the Detroit Conference, but ought to be better known

It will spend for educational purposes next year over $700,000, which means good instruction and good equipment. And the location of a university couldn't be better—in Evanston, a beautiful suburb of Chicago on Lake Michigan; in Chicago, center of commerce and educational opportunities.

The College of Liberal Arts, College of Engineering, School of Music and Evanston Academy at Evanston; the Schools of Medicine, Law, Pharmacy, Dentistry and Commerce in Chicago, with every advantage in libraries, clinics, courts, etc.

The University is proud of its affiliation with the Methodist Episcopal Church. It wants its confidence and its young people for its class rooms.

Memoirs

REV. JOHN WESLEY CRIPPEN

In the death of this Christian minister the Detroit Conference loses one of its rarest spirits, a man of very fine sensibilites and discriminating intellect, and of marked unobtrusiveness of nature; a man of solid worth of character. We feel impelled to speak strongly of his personal worth, because he was so little concerned himself about impressing it upon others. He had been a superannuate so many years and had been in so retired a life during that time, that many members of the conference did not know how good a man he was.

He was born in the township of Superior, Washtenaw County, not far from Ypsilanti, in 1833, July 3, was converted December 23, 1852, received an exhorter's license from William Mahon October 23, 1854, and a local preacher's license May 24, 1856, and joined the Detroit Conference as a probationer at Port Huron in 1857.

His appointments were: Chelsea (junior preacher), Brighton (junior), Fremont and Newburg (Owosso section), Holly, Goodrich, Grand Blanc, Clinton, Morenci, Lee's Chapel (Detroit), Northville, Utica, St. Charles, Trenton, Belleville, Commerce, West Haven, Ames Church (Saginaw) and Bridgeport. This brought his ministry down to the fall of 1883, when he superannuated after twenty-six years of active work in the pastorate. This period is exactly the first half of his ministry, for it is just twenty-six years since he retired. The whole stretch of conference connection covers fifty-two years, and they were all years of honor and grace.

This fine life was handicapped by physical frailty. From child-hood to age his health was infirm and his life insecure. During all his ministry and later years he suffered greatly from bodily affliction and perhaps has borne four-fold of the average of human physical suffering. His temperament was nervous and his physical type the same.

His father was a farmer and a Methodist local preacher, and came to Michigan in 1827. His grandfather was a "Yankee" and a Baptist. His mother's veins had strains of English, Irish and Dutch blood in them.

As a lad he loved books. By nature he had a passion for study. As health permitted he went to district school up to his thirteenth or fourteenth year, and afterwards had nearly three years in Albion Seminary, and about two terms in Garrett Biblical Institute.

In his early years he was very open to religious influences and impressions, and experienced very many seasons of deep emotion, a sharp sense of sinfulness, a keen relish for devotion and love of goodness, and an impulsive desire to live and labor so as to please God. At times he counted himself at the gate of the kingdom and was uncertain whether he was on the inside or outside of the gate. One may infer, from his own minutes of his condition, that an appreciative and wise guide would have led him into a clear understanding of his spiritual privileges as a child and would have been the means of his being early established in a Christian experience and faith. Unfortunately he was brought under the spell of a skeptical school of thought and read the periodical publications of an infidel press, and for five years he was in the realm of mist and unrest. His change for the better came from the beginning on his part of a persistent reading of the Bible. Its light banished his darkness. Under the influence of the Word, which was strengthened by his church attendance, he came to a deliberate surrender of himself to God and the commencement of a calm and clear religious experience.

He was married in 1859 at Pleasant Valley, near Brighton, to Miss Esther E. Withey, a sister of Rev. J. E. Withey, of Flint, and they became the happy parents of Miss Hattie A. Crippen, who survives and mourns her father.

After retiring from the active ministry, Brother Crippen and the family settled in Ann Arbor and largely provided for themselves by caring for students to whom they rented rooms. Because of his feebleness and the form of his malady he rarely preached and was seldom in the gatherings of his brethren where the commotion would unnerve him. His fondness for books and his absorbing concern for the church and his joy in its advance were unabated to the end. His death occurred Saturday night, October 16th, 1909, and the funeral was held from our church in Ann Arbor on Tuesday.

His change for the better came from the beginning on his part of a persistent reading of the Bible. Its light banished his darkness. Under the influence of the Word, which was strengthened by his church attendance, he came to a deliberate surrender of himself to God and the commencement of a calm and clear religious experience.

He was married in 1859 at Pleasant Valley, near Brighton, to Miss Esther E. Withey, a sister of Rev. J. E. Withey, of Flint, and they became the happy parents of Miss Hattie A. Crippen, who survives and mourns her father.

After retiring from the active ministry, Brother Crippen and the family settled in Ann Arbor and largely provided for themselves by caring for students to whom they rented rooms. Because of his feebleness and the form of his malady he rarely preached and was seldom in the gatherings of his brethren where the commotion would unnerve him. His fondness for books and his absorbing concern for the church and his joy in its advance were unabated to the end. His death occurred Saturday night, October 16th, 1909, and the funeral was held from our church in Ann Arbor on Tuesday.

REV. P. C. J. McAULEY

P. C. J. McAuley was born in Ireland, March 17, 1848, and died in Attica, Michigan, January 25, 1910. He was born and reared a Roman Catholic. But when he was born from above and his soul was illumined by grace, the cold formalism of his mother church lost its attractiveness. God touched his lips with a coal from off the altar, made his life glow with heavenly fervor and he sought congenial associations in the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was received on probation in the Detroit Conference in 1884. He was ordained deacon in 1886, at Adrian, by Bishop Hurst, and ordained elder by Bishop Merrill, at Central Church, Detroit, in 1888. Owing to broken health and premature age, superinduced in large measure by excessive labor on hard fields, he reluctantly took the relation of superannuate in 1905. During his active ministry of twenty-one years he served fourteen charges in the Detroit Conference. His work was largely that of a pioneer. His average annual salary, house rent included, was less than five hundred dollars. However, he never complained of hard work or small salary. He was glad to work anywhere for his Master. In 1893, he was married to Miss Ettie Lowe, of Escanaba. To this union were born two children, Francis and Ruth. Brother McAuley was a conscientious tither. Yet despite the smallness of his income and the giving of a tenth to the Lord, he was enabled by strict economy and self-denial to purchase a comfortable home at Attica upon his superannuation. In the closing hours of his life, knowing the approach of the inevitable, he requested that his District Superintendent, Brother Balmer, preach the funeral discourse, taking for his text 2 Tim. 4:7. The funeral service was held in the Attica Methodist Episcopal Church, Brother Balmer preaching a helpful sermon. The funeral was largely attended, many former parishioners coming a long distance to manifest their sorrow and esteem. A number of the members of the Detroit Conference attended the service, six of whom acted as his pall bearers.

One who was intimately acquainted with Brother Macaulay says of him that he was a man of more than ordinary mentality. Had he enjoyed good health he would have taken first rank among the pulpit teachers of his time. Handicapped by physical disabilities that would have retired most men from active service, he pursued his career studiously and diligently. His preaching was always of a high order. Thoughtful people said of his sermons, "Far above the average." Sick and weak most of his time, yet accomplishing more than many men do in their vigor, he was a constant wonder to those who were acquainted with his disadvantages and accomplishments. His honesty was unimpeachable. Falsity, deception of any kind or failure to perform every obligation were repugnant to his moral sense as crime is to virtue. With his limited resources he met his obligations without flinching or seeking favors. He was deeply spiritual, and divine things were real to him. He was true to the churches that he served. It was known by those in authority that all the interests under his care would receive attention. He was not easily known or quickly appreciated, but acquaintance ripened into respect and affection. In his departure the church of earth suffers loss, but the church above is enriched.

REV. CHARLES SIMPSON

Charles Simpson was born in New York state in the year 1832. He was seventy-eight years of age at the time of his decease. He became a probationer in the Detroit Conference in the year 1866, and was admitted at the session at Hudson, presided over by Bishop Ames. The thirty-four years of his effective ministry were given to only twelve places, showing an average pastorate of nearly three years. This average is unusual and reveals his own contentment of soul and his acceptability to the churches. Another notable fact in connection with his ministry is his having pursued his calling in one conference and largely in the same geographical region of the state. By the official estimate of the church thirty-five years make a "Ministerial Life." Brother Simpson served thirty-four years, or until 1900, and then superannuated. But in his retired years he did much preaching, and at the time of his death was the associate pastor of our Woodmere circuit. After preaching at River Rouge, on Sunday evening, he was returning to his home, when the accident occurred which put an end to his earthly labors for the Master. He and Mrs. Simpson were spending the quiet afternoon of their life in their comfortable home in the northern part of the city. Mrs. Simpson and two daughters are left to mourn his departure.

A brief service was conducted at the house, after which a public service was conducted at Central Church. Interment was at Woodlawn Cemetery.

Many truthful and beautiful eulogies might be uttered concerning him. We believe that he never kindled hostility in the heart of any brother minister or of any parishioner. We doubt his having or ever having had an enemy in the world. He was an ideal disciple of his Lord in that he never said and he never did the things that arouse the evil in men. He was an innocent man and his life made for peace. He did not spend time in belaboring men for their weaknesses. He worked rather to reinforce the good in individuals and in society. He was constructive and not destructive. He followed the principle of over coming evil with good. He spoke more of righteousness and goodness than of wrong and badness. Such a life would not be markedly aggressive, but usefulness and helpfulness were its glorifying qualities. He united with his calmness an unflinching grip on truth, and he was fearless in his stand for the gospel ideals and principles. There was a brave tone in his nature, which was evinced by his active participation as a soldier in the Civil War. His death is sincerely mourned by his associates in the ministry and by hundreds who sat under his helpful ministrations. Having lived the Christ life by faith, he has gone to behold with face unveiled the glories of the Lord whom he served faithfully and well upon the earth.

REV. EDWIN PORTER PIERCE

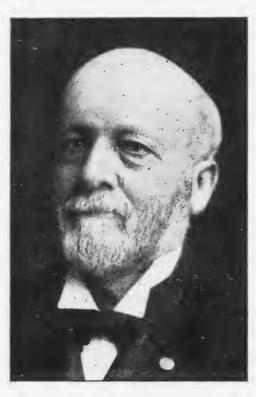

The parents of Edwin Porter Pierce came to Michigan from western New York and settled in Shiawassee County. Here Edwin and his twin brother Edward were born in 1837. When the boys were between three and four years of age, their parents returned to New York and settled at Pekin, Niagara County. Upon the death of their father, which occurred when they were but seven years of age, their uncle, the brother of their mother, took them into his own home and kindly reared, trained and schooled them. This uncle was a Presbyterian. Edwin was converted among the Methodists and experienced a call to the ministry. His Presbyterian uncle discouraged the movement and the call was left in abeyance. In young manhood he attended Lockport Academy and secured whatever education he possessed above the district school grade. Later he became clerk in a general store in Simcoe, Ontario. When the Civil War began he was engaged in this occupation. He enlisted and went to the front and served to the close of the war as a member of the Twenty-Third New York Artillery. At this time he was twenty-eight years of age. Returning to civil life, he moved westward to Wyandotte, Michigan, and found employment as a clerk. Soon after, in 1866, he returned to New York to wed the young woman of his choice, Miss Cornelia Sage, of Lewiston. The young people set up their home in Wyandotte.

Here Dr. John M. Arnold, who has been instrumental in guiding several young men into the ministry, became acquainted with them and discovered the desire to preach which still slumbered in the heart of Brother Pierce. At Dr. Arnold's suggestion he abandoned clerking and became a teacher in order that he might find an opportunity to study. He secured the position as principal of the Flat Rock school. Our Church licensed him as a local preacher and for some years he taught, studied and preached. This proved to be a good preparation for his ministry. In 1873 he passed the examinations for admission and became a probationer in conference.

During his ministry he served about twenty charges in the Detroit Conference. His last charge was Gratiot Avenue. It was during his term here that the little church building which preceded the present stately edifice was built and dedicated, and the success of the undertaking was largely due to the labors of Brother Pierce. In the fall of 1902 he was made supernumerary and two years later superannuated. In 1891, when pastor at Birmingham, he met with that almost greatest of sorrows, the loss of his wife. Mrs. Pierce was a very excellent woman, godly, domestic, devoted, a helpful wife and a discreet mother. Following this trial Brother Pierce never regained the spirit and physical vigor of earlier years, and shortly after his health began to break. For eight years he lived among his children in this state and in Iowa. Under the tender care of his children he was as comfortable as was possible in the midst of declining health. During the last two years of his life he was feeble and dependent. Six children survive him.

The funeral services were held at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Luther K. Marshall, in charge of his pastor, Rev. F. S. Rowland. The interment took place at Lewiston beside his wife in the family cemetery. Brother Pierce was a diffident man, but a cool and careful thinker. Though mild in disposition, he was firm in maintaining a rightful position. His ministry was an equable and useful one. He will be missed by his brethren who esteemed and loved him.

REV. ALEXANDER J. HOLMES

Alexander J. Holmes was born in September, 1845. His childhood home was close to the city of Syracuse, N. Y. Amid the sturdy people that comprised the population of central New York in that day he spent his formative years. His religious life began at the age of eleven, and his fidelity to God continued to the end of his days. As a young man he went to the front in response to his country's call and rendered efficient service. He served in what was known as "Harris' Light Guard," which afterward became Company C of the Second New York Cavalry. While his army life covered only a period of between one and two years, he was instrumental in raising and drilling four companies of volunteers for the army prior to his enlistment. Soon after the termination of his war experience he moved westward, bringing his aged father and mother with him. With the aid of his army pay he purchased a farm. It was at this period of his life that he chose an estimable young woman who lived in the neighborhood of Lexington to be his wife.

Prior to entering the ministry, Brother Holmes was in a doubtful state of mind concerning the matter of preaching. While pondering the question and seeking through the agency of prayer for guidance, a temporal incident led him to a decision. His buildings and property suddenly burned, and the visitation and loss suggested to him that his mission in life was not to build and fill barns but to preach the gospel of Christ. He joined the Detroit Conference in 1878 and served in the active ministry for thirty-two years. His first appointment was in the Thumb. Tyre, Adair, Brockaway, Memphis, Metamora, Algonac, Croswell, Auburn and New Haven have been favored with his pastoral care. His terms of service varied from three to seven years.

The call to enter into the joys of another world came to him suddenly but it found him executing the great task of life. On the Sabbath preceding his departure he occupied his pulpit and preached at the appointed times. The day following being Memorial Day, he delivered the annual address at New Haven, walking to and from the village cemetery. Apparently he was in the enjoyment of his usual good health. But upon arriving at the parsonage at four o'clock, with just sufficient strength and time to greet an old friend and seat himself, he heard and answered the call from above. His departure was as quiet and peaceful as the passing of a summer evening. There was no crying or struggling. The heart that had been strained in eulogy of his country became weary and refused to do further service. The funeral was held on Friday and the interment was in the family lot at Memphis.

Justice demands that a few words be said regarding his personal character. Brother Holmes was a man among men. His was a stalwart nature. His mien and bearing were manly. His ministry and pastoral labors appealed to the men of the communities which he served. His common sense won its way with the business men and his practical methods appealed to the toilers of his flock. He was a believer in the "old time religion" and hence was an exponent of the sinfulness of man and the regenerating power of grace and the ransom of Calvary. He set himself against the vices of the day and stood for their extirpation. He tolerated no compromise and gave no quarter to wrong-doing. "A good man of clean life and honored record" might truthfully be inscribed upon the monument that marks the spot where the body awaits the return of its Lord.

REV. JACOB HORTON

Jacob Horton was born on a Michigan farm and into a family of piety and upright living. He was the fifth of nine children, four older for him to follow, four younger for him to lead. The discipline acquired by relationship in a family such as this, the consideration, self-restraint, giving up, co-operative effort, division of labor, sharing of joys and sorrows and inspiration and love were invaluable to him. A well equipped district school was situated near the farm, and through its agency he fitted himself for further learning. In the fall of 1857, at the age of seventeen, he entered the Normal School at Ypsilanti and pursued his studies for two terms. For several years thereafter he taught school in his native state and in Illinois and entered Garrett Biblical Institute in 1861. In 1863, during the presidency of Dr. John Dempster, he graduated from Garrett Biblical Institute.

His conversion had taken place at the favorable age of fifteen, under the preaching of Rev. Curtis Mosher, preacher of the Farmington circuit, and the call to enter the ministry was heard about the same time. The sense of this call was kept alive by his pastor and others who felt an interest in his welfare. A license to exhort was given to him in 1858, while yet a boy of eighteen, and his fame as a public speaker quickly spread in all that section. In 1860 he was licensed as a local preacher and in 1863 he was admitted on trial in the Detroit Conference. During his ministry he served many important charges in various parts of the conference. For six years, from 1885 to 1891, he was presiding elder of the Port Huron District and resided at Port Huron. Detroit was his final field of labor.

While pastor of the Campbell Avenue Church, Detroit, in the year 1904, he met with a distressing accident which nearly cost him his life and which resulted in months of excruciating suffering. It was almost a marvel that the mangled foot and ankle escaped amputation. He bore his affliction bravely and his life has been cheerful and optimistic despite this handicap. In the fall following the accident he took a superannuated relation and removed to Ypsilanti. In this community he radiated life and light and assisted his brethren as opportunities offered.

The funeral service was held at the church in Ypsilanti on Monday, the 22nd of August. In the absence of the Rev. M. C. Hawks, the pastor, the Rev. William Dawe, District Superintendent, had charge of the service. A large number of the members of the Conference attended and several assisted in the service. The wife and two sons survive to mourn the loss of husband and father. Brother Horton had attained unto the age of "three score years and ten," the boundary outlined by the Psalmist as the span of human life, but those who knew him well wish that he might have tarried longer. Beneath the endeared soil of his beloved state his body will lie till the morning of the great arising. Beyond the skies his spirit will find unalloyed bliss in higher service in the presence of the Master.

REV. JOHN SLEEPER JOSLIN

John Sleeper Joslin was born in Steuben County, New York state, on October 12, 1836. The family came to Michigan while John was but a child and settled on a farm equidistant from Holly and Fenton. Here he became accustomed to toil and plain living and received some education and religious training. Experiencing an inward impulse to seek an education, he entered the schools at Ypsilanti and after some years graduated from the State Normal School. He aimed to fit himself for the teaching profession. For some years he taught in the public schools and instituted plans that foreshadowed pedagogical improvements of later years.

The advent of the civil war interrupted his professional life. He entered the army and assisted in recruiting the Sixth Michigan Cavalry, in which he became a lieutenant. He withdrew from the service of his country because of ill-health, receiving an honorable discharge in 1863. In the following year he married and entered the Christian ministry. The Rev. L. C. York, his wife's father, and Thomas J. Joslin, his own elder brother, were largely influential in changing his life work. He began his ministry at Grand Blanc, near his boyhood home, and served numerous responsible pastorates in the Detroit Conference. In 1902 he took a superannuated relation and removed to a small farm which was a part of the old paternal acres. He lived there until two years ago when he removed to Fenton to spend in quietness the latter days of his life.

For many years Brother Joslin was subject to spells of heart trouble which kept increasing in intensity. On August 13th he passed away. The children now living are Evelyn A., the wife of Judge William Snell of Sault Ste. Marie; Ida Isabel, the wife of Prof. C. H. Van Tyne; and Robert, who resides in Oregon. In the absence of his pastor, Rev. J. I. Nickerson, who was on his vacation, the funeral services were conducted by the Rev. John Sweet, on Monday, the 15th. The interment was in the village cemetery at Holly.

Brother Joslin was a sturdy and untrammeled thinker in matters religious and theological and was outspoken and often blunt and undiplomatic in speech. He had a keen relish for mirth and enjoyed pleasantries. He was generous in spending and giving, and had no sympathy for the miser. He was genial, social and hospitable. His voice was rarely heard on the conference floor, and his dislike for the drudgery of committee work was well known. However, he was a sharp critic of character and quick to discover the merits of a public speaker. The best side of his nature was not exposed to every one, and only intimate friends saw enough of him to understand him. The native strength of his personality would have been augmented by the close training of the schools and his power as a preacher increased by such discipline.

Judged by some qualities John S. Joslin would rank among the greater preachers whose names have graced the conference rolls. With a vivid imagination, a sense of rhetorical charm, a high appreciation of the beautiful in nature and life, a ready and graceful use of language and with independence and freedom of thought, his discourses were fascinating and attractive and often of a superior order. His spirit has gone to dwell forever with the One whom he loved and served. For many years his influence will linger in the lives of those who knew him.

John Sleeper Joslin was born in Steuben County, New York state, on October 12, 1836. The family came to Michigan while John was but a child and settled on a farm equidistant from Holly and Fenton. Here he became accustomed to toil and plain living and received some education and religious training. Experiencing an inward impulse to seek an education, he entered the schools at Ypsilanti and after some years graduated from the State Normal School. He aimed to fit himself for the teaching profession. For some years he taught in the public schools and instituted plans that foreshadowed pedagogical improvements of later years.

The advent of the civil war interrupted his professional life. He entered the army and assisted in recruiting the Sixth Michigan Cavalry, in which he became a lieutenant. He withdrew from the service of his country because of ill-health, receiving an honorable discharge in 1863. In the following year he married and entered the Christian ministry. The Rev. L. C. York, his wife's father, and Thomas J. Joslin, his own elder brother, were largely influential in changing his life work. He began his ministry at Grand Blanc, near his boyhood home, and served numerous responsible pastorates in the Detroit Conference. In 1902 he took a superannuated relation and removed to a small farm which was a part of the old paternal acres. He lived there until two years ago when he removed to Fenton to spend in quietness the latter days of his life.

For many years Brother Joslin was subject to spells of heart trouble which kept increasing in intensity. On August 13th he passed away. The children now living are Evelyn A., the wife of Judge William Snell of Sault Ste. Marie; Ida Isabel, the wife of Prof. C. H. Van Tyne; and Robert, who resides in Oregon. In the absence of his pastor, Rev. J. I. Nickerson, who was on his vacation, the funeral services were conducted by the Rev. John Sweet, on Monday, the 15th. The interment was in the village cemetery at Holly.

Brother Joslin was a sturdy and untrammeled thinker in matters religious and theological and was outspoken and often blunt and undiplomatic in speech. He had a keen relish for mirth and enjoyed pleasantries. He was generous in spending and giving, and had no sympathy for the miser. He was genial, social and hospitable. His voice was rarely heard on the conference floor, and his dislike for the drudgery of committee work was well known. However, he was a sharp critic of character and quick to discover the merits of a public speaker. The best side of his nature was not exposed to every one, and only intimate friends saw enough of him to understand him. The native strength of his personality would have been augmented by the close training of the schools and his power as a preacher increased by such discipline.

Judged by some qualities John S. Joslin would rank among the greater preachers whose names have graced the conference rolls. With a vivid imagination, a sense of rhetorical charm, a high appreciation of the beautiful in nature and life, a ready and graceful use of language and with independence and freedom of thought, his discourses were fascinating and attractive and often of a superior order. His spirit has gone to dwell forever with the One whom he loved and served. For many years his influence will linger in the lives of those who knew him.

FRANCES D. G. YORK

Frances D. Grace Collester was born in the village of Madison, Madison County, New York, December 18, 1826. She was the eldest daughter of Dr. Samuel and Amanda Collester. On August 17, 1845, she was married to Lodowick C. York, then principal of the Brookfield Academy. In 1854 they came to Michigan, and in 1856 at its first session, Brother York united with the Detroit Annual Conference. Sister York was not only willing, but glad to engage with her husband in all departments of church work. Being a fine singer and a good musician, she trained and led choirs, worked in Sunday Schools, revival services in church and at camp-meetings. In 1873 she was licensed a Local Preacher in the Methodist Episcopal Church, which license was renewed in 1874 and 1875. She became greatly interested in the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of our church, and was one of the first to join and organize auxiliaries. She was the first to advocate a conference organization of the society, and in 1876 was elected the first Conference Secretary of Detroit Conference, which office she held for thirteen years. In this society she became a leader throughout the entire organization. She was the originator of the "Lesson Leaves" which have done so much to promote the interests of this society. Brother York superannuated in 1886 and went with his wife to live with their son, B. D. York. Soon after Sister York gave up her active work in the missionary society, but always retained a lively interest in that as well as all church work. For about eight years prior to her death, which occurred September 15th, 1910, she suffered much, and for nearly two years was confined to her bed; but she was always hopeful and trustful, with an abiding faith that never knew a doubt in the wisdom, justice and mercy of her Heavenly Father.

Sister York is survived by a daughter, Mrs. V. A. Joslin, widow of Brother J. S. Joslin, late of this Conference, and two sons, B. D. York of Detroit, with whom she made her home, and F. L. York also of Detroit.

The funeral services of Sister York were conducted by Dr. Rowland, pastor of Cass Avenue Church, where her membership was, assisted by other ministers, who were her personal friends.

REBECCA WINTER HAZARD

Rebecca Winter Hazard was born in Ontario, August 28, 1857, and died at her home in the Methodist parsonage, Trenton, Mich., Aug. 14, 1910. She was married to Rev. Leonard Hazard June 4, 1879. To them were born two children, both dying in childhood. Mrs. Hazard was converted in a revival conducted by Rev. C. E. Benson, when she was sixteen years of age, and continued faithful and was in hearty sympathy with the ministry and the church. She loved children and young people and delighted in the Sunday School and Epworth League.

Naturally quiet and retiring in disposition, she was not given to self-praise, nor inclined to be prominent in the public view, but her convictions were strong and her religious life abundant. Even when retired from active participation in her husband's work by reason of ill health, she exercised a decided influence for good and in favor of evangelical faith by her own interest in the church and her ever ready testimony for her Saviour. Severe illnesses left her a confirmed invalid and a great sufferer, but she did not murmur nor complain, but rejoiced that she had been able to do something for her Lord and for her fellow-men. She often said, "I am so glad that I worked for Jesus when I could."

The last few months of her life were spent in the parsonage at Trenton, where she could look out of her window upon the Detroit river, and she often expressed delight in gazing at the river and spoke of the "river of life" to abide by which she was soon to go. Her life was beautiful in its purity and faith. We shall see her again when the morning dawns. The services were in charge of District Superintendent C. B. Allen, assisted by several other ministers, and the tired body sleeps in Woodlawn cemetery. The triumphant spirit has gone home to God.

ELIZA WILSON

Mrs. Eliza Wilson died at her home in Milford, March 12. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bourns, two of the very earliest English settlers who came into the township when it was naught but a wilderness. The family came from England in 1831 and stopped for a year in Warren, Herkimer county, N. Y., where the subject of this sketch was born October 30, 1832. A year later the family came to Milford and took up land from the government.

On November 5, 1862, Eliza Bourns became the wife of Rev. George Wilson, minister in the Detroit Conference, and for six years in the pastorate. Ill health compelled him to give up his ministerial work, and the family returned to Milford, which has since been their home.

Mr. Wilson's death occurred in May, 1881. Three daughters survive the mother, Mrs. Ida Jackson, Mrs. Clarence Budd and Miss Carrie Wilson.

Mrs. Wilson became a member of the Wesleyan Methodist church in her youth, but transferred her membership to the Methodist Episcopal Church shortly before her marriage. Her life had been consecrated to the interests of the church, until ill health forbade her active participation.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. T. J. Gregg, with a large attendance of relatives and friends of the family.

ALMY A. WILSEY

Mrs. Almy A. Wilsey, widow of the late Rev. M. B. Wilsey, of Detroit Conference, died at her home in Milford, Michigan, September 23, 1909. She was a daughter of Job G. and Thankful Bigelow, a sister of our W. E. and Andrew J. Bigelow, both of Detroit Conference.

She was born at New Lebanon, New York, December 25, 1823. With her parents she came to Milford in 1833. May 13, 1840, she was united in marriage to Rev. Marsemus Benson Wilsey, who preceded her in death a few years ago. She was converted in girlhood. She was a devoted wife and a faithful Christian. For years she was in the Wesleyan Church but united with the Methodist Episcopal in 1867. In both of these churches Brother Wilsey served in active ministerial work and was sustained by her faithful and efficient efforts.

She shared in the strong, sturdy and noble characteristics of her family, being, like her brothers, solid and substantial in her life and faith. For several years past she was in very feeble health and for months in a state of utter helplessness. She was almost totally blind, and this, with the gradual giving way of all her powers, made her last days very pathetic. She was cared for by her granddaughter, Miss Edith Wilsey, who was, however, more like an own daughter, as Sister Wilsey brought her up from infancy.

The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. T. J. Gregg, at the church in Milford, September 25, and she was laid to rest beside her husband in Oak Grove cemetery.

MRS. LITTLEFIELD, for whom no obituary could be secured, died during the year.

The meeting in behalf of this interest was held on Friday evening, with George Elliott presiding, Dr. Ward Platt, of Philadelphia, one of the General Secretaries, delivering the address.

Evangelistic Sessions.

Two sessions were held in discussion of Evangelism, on Wednesday, with C. E. Stedman presiding, with an address, "The Outgoing Church," by Norman La Marche; and on Thursday evening with Reuben Crosby presiding, Rev. R. Whitney, of London, Ont., spoke on "Home and School Evangelism."

Special Lecture.

The Conference was privileged to have the rare treat of the presence of Miss Italia Garibaldi, granddaughter of the Italian liberator, who delivered an illustrated lecture on "Garibaldi's Life and Battles."

Women's Home Missionary Society.

The interests of this organization were forwarded by a meeting on Saturday afternoon, at which Mrs. May Leonard Woodruff, of Paterson, N. J., delivered the address.

Women's Foreign Missionary Society.

This society was represented on the Conference program by an anniversary held on Saturday afternoon, addressed by Miss Ella J. Hewitt, of Japan.

Education.

The educational anniversary on Saturday afternoon was presided over by E. A. Elliott. Eugene Moore and President Samuel Dickie made addresses.

Board of Foreign Missions.

John Sweet presided at this anniversary on Saturday evening, and Rev. A. B. Leonard, of New York, General Secretary of the Board, delivered an address.

THE CENTENNIAL ANNIVERSARY.

Doubtless the greatest and most auspicious gathering of Michigan' Methodism ever held occurred on Friday of the Conference Session. The Michigan Conference came in a body from their session at Jackson and were first joined by the Detroit Conference in an excursion on the Steamer Brittannia on Detroit River. Returning, both Conferences were the guests at dinner of George O. Robinson and J. L. Hudson. The hour of the afternoon session found Central Church crowded regardless of rain, and the program which followed could scarcely be excelled in any particular. The meeting was presided over by F. D. Leete, pastor of Central Church, in a most happy and expeditious manner. After singing "Faith of our Fathers," C. B. Allen, District Superintendent, offered prayer and J. H. Botts read the Scripture Lesson. J. L. Hudson was introduced as Michigan's leading philanthropist and received an ovation. He spoke for Detroit and of Central Church and voiced their cordial welcome. Mrs. Geo. O. Robinson followed with an animated greeting. M. M. Callen responded for the ministry of Michigan Conference and President Samuel Dickie for the Michigan Conference laity. J. M. Buckley, of the New York Advocate, pastor during the construction of the present building of Central Church, spoke of Methodism's contribution to morality and society, also of the "civic duties of citizenship."

Miss Italia Garibaldi, granddaughter of the Italian liberator and now at the head of our girls' Mission School in Rome, was introduced and received the Chatauqua Salute. She spoke briefly in the interest of the work in Italy and her appreciation of the work of Methodism.

Two of the honored veterans followed with historical accounts. Geo. S. Hickey accounted early Methodism, and Seth Reed, the oldest living pastor of Central Church, spoke very happily and briefly.

The chairman introduced John Russell, who spoke of sixty-seven years of ministry, and received the Chatauqua Salute.

"Our Conference" was the theme for P. J. Maveety, of the Michigan Conference, who said he brought the greetings of 55,000 church members, 67,000 Sunday School scholars and 14,000 Epworth Leaguers with their 400 pastors to be marshaled in the cohorts of the King. D. H. Ramsdell of the Detroit Conference, in a very facetious address upheld the reputation of his Conference.

Bishops Cranston and McDowell, in charge of the Conferences closed this excellent program, both speaking in heroic spirit of the glories and the high responsibilities of our great Methodism.

The program was illuminated at intervals with excellent selections by the Kalamazoo District Male Quartet, and the audience was delighted by the solos of Mr. Harold Jarvis of Detroit.

After the benediction by Brother Ferguson of the Michigan Conference, the audience remained seated, singing "God Be with You Till We Meet Again," while the Michigan Conference filed out and returned to their train.

Sunday Services.

Sunday, September 25, 1910.

Love Feast.—The morning hour found a thronged sanctuary, which, under the leadership of W. H. Shier, realized the fervor and grace common to this historic Methodist institution—the Love Feast.

Collection.—A collection for Superannuated Ministers was taken amounting to $140.32.

Ordination of Deacons.—Before the sermon at the morning service, the following fifteen brethren were ordained Deacons:

Henry Scofield, Clifford E. Doty, Milton F. McKenney, Ezra A. Stringer, Wm. A. Gregory, Russell D. Hopkins, W. Lester Card, Frank M. Field, as full members of the Conference, and Joseph H. Green, George H. Smith, Joseph Hitchens, Simon Greensky, Harry Biddlecombe, Daniel T. McTavish and Wilmot L. Moore under the Missionary rule. The ordination of David Hicks was recognized and he answered the questions of our ritual.

Morning Worship.—The mother church of Michigan Methodism was so taxed by the morning attendance that an overflow service was held in the chapel, at which Bishop Warren and Dr. Reed spoke. Bishop McDowell preached from the text, "A sower went forth to sow." The sermon in a very illuminating and practical way glorified the great work of sowing the truth.

Ordination of Elders.—The following thirteen were ordained Elders on Sunday afternoon: Geo. G. Hicks, Frederick B. Johnston, Stark V. Reagan, Romilly H. Prouse, Wilhelm Ramakka, William H. Collycott, William E. Darling, Clement Ainge, King D. Beach, Joseph H. Oatey, Joseph A. Cottam. F. Ernest Johnson and Horace H. Mallinson. The orders of Dr. Carl G. Zeidler from the Presbyterian church were recognized.

Memorial Service.—Following the Ordination service on Sunday afternoon, a memorial service was held in honor of those who had died during the year, and brief memorials of six preachers and five wives of preachers were read.

Consecration of Deaconesses.—Before the sermon on Sunday evening, Bessie Dancey and Gladys Scribner were consecrated as Deaconesses by Bishop McDowell.

Evening Service.—To an audience that filled the auditorium to its utmost, Bishop Henry W. Warren preached an eminently edifying and masterful sermon from the text, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

AUDITING COMMITTEE.

Your Committee beg to report that we have audited the accounts of the District Superintendents pertaining to the Missionary Funds distributed by them, and likewise the accounts of the publishers of the Conference minutes and of the Transportation Bureau and that we have found them correct.

J. G. HALLER, D. C. LITTLEJOHN, F. L. LEONARD.

REPORT ON BAY VIEW.

At the last session of this Conference, representations were made that Bay View and Michigan Methodism should draw closer together for mutual advantage. The invitation was accepted by both the Detroit and Michigan Conferences and committees were appointed. Your Committee now submits its first annual report. A part of the Committee visited Bay View the past summer and the rest, feeling conversant with Bay View matters, concur in this report.

Bay View owes its inception to the action of the two Conferences in Michigan, which appointed and instructed committees to join and locate a State Camp Ground. Thirty-five years ago the present location was selected, and on motion of Rev. Seth Reed of this Conference, named Bay View. The place is, therefore, a child of Michigan Methodism. More than a third of a century has spread the fame of that fair spot all over this land. Your Committee finds among many things to report:

First—That Bay View has maintained the traditions and practices of Methodism. It is a place where to this day, Christian influences control in the social life, the worship, and the manifold work of that favored place.

Second—That, though other evangelical denominations participate in the management, still the control of Bay View rests with Methodist people, and thereby a guarantee is assured of a continuation of the principles on which it was founded.

Turning to the public work at Bay View, your Committee mentions with pride, its educational work. First, in the Summer University, which is in the hands of educators of rank and success, and which this year, practically its second, had an enrollment of nearly seven hundred students, from nearly half of the States in the Union. Co-ordinate with this, is the popular Assembly, with its brilliant programs and conferences. Of especial interest is the Bible Conference, of which our Bishop Berry has accepted the permanent leadership. The program this year was most effective in deepening Christian culture, and awakening inspiration in all who attended. The Missionary Conference and the Labor and Social Welfare Conference were likewise of great power, and the attendance was large and enthusiastic.

At the head of all the Summer Work is John M. Hall, the founder, and in whose time Bay View has become the third, if not the second, summer educational center in the land. Your Committee gladly mentions the dignity and high order of all the work, and its utter freedom from the sensational. This year has been the largest and best in the history of the place.

At its last session, the Bay View Association ordered that any minister of any evangelical denomination be given the privilege of selecting and owning a lot for a cottage home, free of expense, Enquiries may be addressed to the Secretary, F. A. Vernor, Canfield Ave. West, Detroit, Mich.

In the main this report deals with matters which are already more or less familiar, but it recalls them to point out that Bay View is an honor to Methodism and merits our co-operation. Let us get closer together to help and be helped. Let more of us plan to spend our summers there.

Finally, it is recommended that the following brethren be named as the Committee on Bay View for next year: D. H. Glass, H. Addis Leeson and W. H. Dawe.

W. M. WARD, W. DAWE, D. H. RAMSDELL.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENCES.

The following five organizations constitute the benevolences of our Church: Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Church Extension, Education. Sunday Schools and Freedman's Aid. There has been a gratifying increase in benevolent contributions during the year due largely to the educational work of our young people in Mission study. and the inspirational work of the Laymen's Missionary Movement.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The Board of Sunday Schools has pushed the work of organizing schools in pioneer territory, and conducted a campaign of religious education throughout the whole Church. We recommend the Graded Lesson System to our schools.

FREEDMAN'S AID.

The last annual report of Freedman's Aid Society shows that our colored people in the South are crowding our twenty-three schools and colleges to such an extent that increased buildings and equipment are sorely needed by our institutions. Our schools constitute the only means by which Christian ministers, teachers, doctors and other leaders shall be prepared for the 350,000 colored members in our own Church, and to a large extent for the ten millions of black people in the United States. They gave for their own schools last year $28,830.32. One of their Conferences, the South Carolina, giving $6.225.26 of this amount.

The Board asks the whole Church $250,000, or one-fifth of the apportionment for Home Missions and Church Extension. Of this amount the Detroit Conference is apportioned $5.000. Lincoln Sunday has come to be one of the institutions of the Church. It offers the best opportunity during the year for presenting the cause of the Freedmen to our congregation.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

The collection in the Detroit Conference has steadily declined during the past two years. Sixty-five per cent, of all the money received from this Conference has been returned to the Conference to aid in building churches and parsonages, two hundred and fifteen in all. A total of more than $10,000.00 was expended last year by the Board for Home Missions and Church Extension in the Detroit Conference. which approximates seventy per cent of the gifts of this Conference for the year.

HOME MISSIONS.

Of moneys contributed in the past three years, for Home Missions, sixty-one per cent has been returned to aid in pastoral support.

Per capita gifts of the Conference last year were twenty-four cents as against thirty-one cents for the Churches in America. On the same basis, the receipts of the Board last year would have been $175,000.00 less, and yet there was an increase in all the Conferences of $42.000.00.

The Board made reductions in its Administrative expenses of about $14,000.00 last year. Indications are that there will be another substantial reduction.

The Board presses upon the Conference the desirability of a minimum contribution of $1.00 per member.

D. H. GLASS, Chairman.

DEACONESS BOARD OF NINE.

As in the past, the Deaconess work of this Conference has been done chiefly in the City of Detroit, all the Deaconesses under the control of this Board being connected with the Detroit Home and assigned to Parish or Mission work within the City.

The work is under the Woman's Home Missionary Society which contributes nearly one-fourth of its support.

The Home has been under the Superintendency of Mrs. Margaret Delight Moors, who in addition to her local duties, has made many addresses in the interest of the work and has also acted as an Assistant to the general Officers of the Deaconess Department of the Woman's Home Missionary Society in the oversight of the Homes and workers in other Conferences.

The year began with the following force under our supervision: Margaret Delight Moors, Deborah B. Kerfoot, Kate A. Blackburn, Alice B. Shirey, May L. Beard, A. Maude King, Alice E. Metcalf, Florence E. Frost, Ethel Young, Iva Lola Ludwick, Gladys Scribner, Bessie E. Dancey, Beulah Clement, Mattie Scott, Eva Z. Hursh, Katherine Bowerman, Rose A. Way, Miriam Lennon.

Beulah Clement has returned to Michigan Conference. A. Maude King has been assigned to work in Portland, Maine, and will be transferred to the Conference where she is stationed. May L. Beard has discontinued work temporarily on account of failing health; Eva Z. Hursh has been honorably discharged on her own request; Mattie Scott (Probationer) has returned to her home in Flint; Katherine Bowerman and Rose A. Way will be transferred to other Conferences soon; Miriam Lennon (Associate Deaconess) has finished her work with us; Gladys Scribner and Bessie E. Dancey have completed the Course of Study and have been Licensed by the Conference. Florence E. Frost will live in the Home the coming year but will be in the employ of the General Officers of the Woman's Home Missionary Society.

Margaret Delight Moors, Deborah B. Kerfoot, Kate A. Blackburn, Alice B. Shirey, Alice E. Metcalf, Iva Lola Ludwick, Gladys Scribner, Bessie E. Dancey, Ethel Young, Mary E. Marquiss, and Miss Fitz (Probationer) will continue in the work in Detroit. (Miss Marquiss and Miss Fitz have come to us during the year.)

The Conference Board has renewed the Licenses of Margaret Delight Moors, Kate A. Blackburn, Deborah B. Kerfoot, Alice B. Shirey, Alice E. Metcalf, Florence E. Frost, May L. Beard, Katherine Bowerman, Rose Alice Way, Mary E. Marquiss, Iva Lola Ludwick, Ethel Young, and A. Maude King, and asks your approval of said renewals.

The Treasurer's report at the close of the fiscal year, June 30th, showed receipts from all sources of $4,349.81, with disbursements of $4,845.68, the over-draft of $495.87 being offset by apportionments due from the City Churches.

The Real Estate Fund has received by bequest $1,843.12 and by gift $500.00. $2,000.00 has been paid on the debt of the property, leaving the present indebtedness $2,100.00.

Extensive improvements have been made upon the interior of the Home building, consisting of Electric Lighting, papering, painting and new carpets; the cost of which was nearly $500.00.

Our Deaconesses have been devoted and faithful and their work of value beyond our present power of computation.

The terms of office of E. P. Bennett, F. D. Leete and W. S. Jones, of the Conference Board, expire at this time and we recommend their election to the term of three years each.

Those remaining in office for two years are: Robinson, Mrs. R. S. Mason and Mrs. G. H. Stalker.

William Dawe, Mrs. J. S. Vernor, and C. W. For one year: Baldwin.

Respectfully submitted,

CHAS. W. BALDWIN,

President.

REPORT OF THE DETROIT CONFERENCE TRUSTEES Dear Brethren:-

Your trustees held their annual meeting in Detroit, Sept. 12, 1910, at which we learned that the funds of the Conference are well invested. It is true however, that payment of some of the interest has been delayed a little, which will cause the amount of dividends to Conference claimants to be a little less than last year from this source; yet we have no fear of the non-payment of interest. The treasurer, J. M. Gordon, submitted his report, which was pronounced correct by the auditing committee and which shows the financial condition of the Conference to be as follows:

Respectfully submitted, S. REED, Secretary.

The report of the Secretary was accepted, the $700.00 was ordered turned over as recommended. The Secretary was directed to cast the ballot of the Conference for their trustees and he reported the election of the persons nominated.

S. REED, Secretary.

EDUCATIONAL REPORT.

Methodism has always emphasized the value of education. Intellectually awakened and trained minds are more and more needed to meet the problems which arise in our modern life. Many of our young people are realizing this and seeking the best training possible. This should be acquired in a safe and wholesome Christian atmosphere which can be found in no better place than in our Methodist institutions.

Our schools are equipped with a splendid leadership. Here habits of thought, work and life may be most properly directed.

We urge a greater diligence on the part of pastors and people in the promotion of the best interests of our schools. Their need is two-fold, viz: financial support and students.

The Board of Education of New York requests the following division of the Educational Collections:

1. THE CHILDREN'S DAY FUND, taken in the Sunday School on the second Sunday in June. This is for Student Aid and belongs to the Board of Education, and is apportioned at 10 per cent of the Foreign Missionary Collection. It should be sent to New York and should be carefully discriminated from the Rally Day collection in October, which is for the Board of Sunday

Schools and which should be sent to Dr. David G. Downey, Chicago, Illinois.

2. THE THE COLLECTION taken in our Church Congregation as an . addition to the Conference or Public Educational Collection. This is apportioned by our Board in an amount equal to three per cent of the apportionment for Foreign Missions and is for the aid of our schools for people of the white race in the South. The proceeds should be sent to the Board of Education at New York.

3. THE CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL COLLECTION is for Albion College and should be sent to President Samuel Dickie or reported to the Conference Treasurer at Conference time.

As pastors we should seek to interest men of wealth in increasing the endowment of this institution of our Michigan Methodism.

We recommend that the following brethren be appointed as

Garrett-H. Cansfield, Frederick Spence. Drew-F. S. Rowland, J. R. Gregory.

Boston—John Dystant, D. H. Glass. Albion—F. F. Fitchett, H. H. Hough.

Trustees of Albion College for Three Years-J. H. Simpson, Wm. Dawe.

Signed:

E. A. ELLIOTT, C. L. ADAMS, H. CANSFIELD, H. J. B. MARSH, G. W. OLMSTEAD, D. H. KYES.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EPWORTH LEAGUE.

The Epworth League is the only organization of the Church devoted exclusively to the development of the religious life of our young people, and it is the duty of the Church to foster its interests. The necessity of careful, systematic training of our young people for leadership in Christian work is forcing itself upon To meet this need the State Organization conducts an annual institute lasting ten days where careful instruction is given in Bible and mission study. The State Institute will be held next summer at Bay View in connection with the Bible Conference, beginning July 21st. The State officers are: President, the Rev. D. H. Glass, Pontiac; vice-presidents, Rev. Howard A. Field, Caro, and Rev. Hugh Kennedy. Battle Creek; Secretary-treasurer, Rev. W. F. Kendrick, Grand Rapids.

Reports published in the Conference minutes last year showed an increase of 3,300 in the membership of the League, while the reports will show this year a decrease of 700. We do not presume to place the responsibility for this decrease, but we confidently believe that the pastors are the only persons who can save the League to its greatest usefulness.

Respectfully,

D. H. GLASS, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON HISTORICAL RECORDS. This Committee was organized last year with Seth Reed, chairman; W. W. Washburn, treasurer, and John E. Mealley, secretary and custodian. It has undertaken to interest all, especially the older members of the conference in collecting and preserving all historical material affecting the Detroit Conference.

Permission has been secured, through the kindness of Dr. Leete, from the trustees of Central Church for the use of their fire-proof vault for preserving these treasures.

An appeal was made through the Michigan Christian Advocate and contributions have been received from F. D. Leete, S. D. Eva and Miss Anna Brakeman of St. Clair. Sketches of the lives and ministry of Rodney Gage, S. K. Kimmell, W. W. Griggs, J. E. Withey and A. R. Laing have also been secured. The Committee urge all our veteran members to prepare brief sketches of their lives and to send them with anything of a historical nature to the Committee.

Old Church Records, Old Files of the Michigan Christian Advocate, Old Diaries of Conference Members, Old Conference Minutes, Photographs of men, churches or parsonages are all desirable for preservation.

The Committee earnestly asks that any member of the Conference who has published a book or pamphlet will contribute a copy for this collection.

SETH REED, W. W. WASHBURN, JOHN E. MEALLEY.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MORAL REFORM.

RESOLVED: That the work of Moral Reform requires the unceasing activity of Ministers and Laymen in Civic affairs. Christian manhood is the only salt which can save the political and civic world from ultimate corruption. The state should never want for men of God to accept any office or position in public life. Public activity of this kind may be undesirable, but our pleasure should always wait upon duty.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

RESOLVED: That the ever increasing desecration of the Sabbath day, in the multiplying forms of Labor and Amusement, demands a more determined effort to perpetuate the sanctity of this holy institution. We would urge upon all our people, in addition to the ordinary forms of Sabbath observance, the necessity of abstaining from all unnecessary travel, and from the unnecessary use of the telephone, telegraph, or the Postal service, on that day. The perpetuity of the Church, and indeed of religion, demands the maintenance of a holy Sabbath day.

DIVORCE.

Whereas, the divorce evil has grown to such an alarming extent in this country;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That we advise our young people against hasty and ill-advised marriages, and that we exercise great caution in the matter of marrying persons who have been divorced, making diligent inquiry as to the facts in each case, and that we refuse to marry persons who have been divorced for any cause other than that which has Scriptural sanction; and further, we declare ourselves as favoring uniformity of divorce laws throughout the United States.

THE INDUSTRIAL SITUATION.

RESOLVED: That as a Church and as individuals we are mindful of the fact that the hosts of corporate wealth and labor are being marshalled for a mighty struggle, and that in this struggle the Church should have an intelligent, helpful, guiding hand.

Further, That we are deeply grieved that there is a wide-spread indifference to the Church on the part of rank and file of the men who toil with their hands. Of our twelve million workingmen, seven million are not in any way connected with the Christian Church. And we believe that the cause of this indifference and estrangement is two-fold: First, the laboring man judges the Church of today by the Church of a quarter of a century ago, the Church which was more concerned with doctrine than with life. And second, a lack of intelligence on the part of the Minister concerning the wrong suffered by the men who toil for daily bread.

Further, That we pledge ourselves as Ministers of the Gospel, patiently, intelligently, and heroically to labor to win the men of brawn to the Church and to the Christ who toiled in a carpenter shop. We declare ourselves in hearty sympathy and accord with every honorable and worthy effort on the part of the laboring man to better his condition and to secure a fair share in the profit of his toil.

TEMPERANCE.

We recognize that the Liquor Traffic is a dangerous enemy to the Home, the Church and the State; and that it is the duty of the Church to lead a movement designed to solve this perplexing problem; Therefore, be it

RESOLVED: First, that we, the Members of the Detroit Annual Conference, hereby renew our expression of determined opposition to the legalized saloon, and pledge our support to every sane effort to repress and restrict its power, and to utterly destroy it. We rejoice in the success of the anti-saloon movement, but we cannot be satisfied until a state-wide movement has swept the traffic from this entire commonwealth.

Second, that we believe the time has come when members of our connection should withhold support from all candidates for office who refuse to declare themselves hostile to the legalized traffic.

Third, we repudiate such utterances of John D. Whitford as have given aid and support to the Saloon advocates, and declare them to be out of harmony with the sentiment of our Church and in opposition to the declarations of the General Conference.

Fourth, we pledge our support to our Church Temperance Society, and recommend the observance of World's Temperance Sunday, and the taking of a collection for this worthy organization; and we cheerfully comply with the request of the Anti-Saloon League and recommend the election of Rev. Frank S. Rowland, Rev. W. B. Collins, O. H. Smith, and J. L. Hudson as members of its Board of Trustees, representing this Conference. W. E. Marvin,

OLD PEOPLE'S HOME.

Undoubtedly the work our Church is doing in providing Homes for her worthy old people affords as much satisfaction as any form of benevolent work in which she is engaged.

We are glad to report that the Home at Chelsea has enjoyed that degree of prosperity and those marks of Divine favor during the past year that have been its portion from the beginning.

One year ago there were twenty-one members in the Home family; during the year four have been admitted and one (Brother Henry Bovee) has died, making the present membership twenty-four. The Board has been obliged to maintain one of the members (Mrs. Elizabeth Riddle) at the Eastern Michigan Asylum at Pontiac, since April 11, 1908, but we are glad to report that she seems so far restored that we think she can be returned to the Home soon.

Brother C. W. Saunders and wife have continued in the Superintendency, giving as heretofore, excellent satisfaction.

As to the finances of the Home, we gratefully report that the current expenses have been met and that through the business-like methods and indefatigable efforts of our Chairman of Finance (Dr. J. E. Jacklin), the $20,000.00 endowment called for has been so nearly secured that it seems safe to state that it will all be paid in or pledged by the first of January next.

It should be well understood that the institution is not wholly self-supporting. At the beginning the Board adopted the policy that only ten per cent per annum of the admission funds should be used for current expenses and this amount for only six years, reserving forty per cent as a guarantee fund thus enabling them to carry out their contract with each member in any emergency. These amounts with the interest from the Endowment Fund provide more than one-half of the sum needed for current expenses each year. The remainder must be provided by offerings of the churches until the endowment is sufficient to render these unnecessary. We would again call attention to the recommendation of your committee of two years ago, namely: 1st, that the Quarterly Conferences include an adequate appropriation for the Home in their annual budgets; or 2nd, that circles be formed on each charge of persons who will pay one dollar annually; where neither of these methods can be used, we urge that collections be taken in the congregations.

The call of our Committee on Finance for offerings from the churches has met with very encouraging response and when all our ministers and congregations take this worthy cause upon their hearts as a conference privilege, the proportion of the expense of the Home needed from the conference at large, will be easily forthcoming.

The following vacancies have occurred in the Board of Trustees during the year: Brother Alexander McVittie, that warm friend and generous benefactor of the Home, passed to his reward. We nominate in his place for the term of one year, W. Scott Jones; and in place of J. S. Smart, removed to California, C. B. Allen; and in place of George Johnstone, resigned, W. S. Campbell.

The Board, with these vacancies supplied, will be as follows: For one year—John Sweet, W. W. Washburn, J. E. Beal, E. M. Moore, J. L. Hudson and W. S. Jones.

For two years—J. E. Jacklin, H. T. Dennis, D. H. Glass, B. D. York, C. W. Baldwin and C. B. Allen.

For three years—Seth Reed, E. P. Bennett, E. E. Caster, J. E. Mason, F. W. Olds, W. S. Campbell.

Respectfully submitted.

W. W. WASHBURN, President Board Trustees.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON STATE INSTITUTIONS.

Your Committee on State Institutions conferred with representatives from the Presbyterian, Baptist and Christian Churches, and after surveying the field, decided to defer all further action until it has been fully ascertained whether or not there is any other inter-denominational agency already in the field, to which the work required of this committee should be committed. It was submitted to the action of the Conference to decide whether or not to continue this committee until the needed information has been secured.

J. S. Steininger, Secretary.

Chairman.

Section Two.—Transportation.

1. The Bureau shall make a careful estimate of the amount necessary to pay the actual traveling expenses of all our effective ministers and probationers and such others as are hereinafter provided, in their journey to and from the annual session.

2. Superannuate members of this conference shall be considered guests of the conference and shall have their traveling expenses included in the above estimate, provided that they notify the Secretary of the Bureau in writing of their expectation to be present; this notification to be not later than June first. Their traveling expenses shall be paid only within the bounds of the conference.

3. Regular supplies who are recommended by the District Superintendent not later than June first, as having been in charge of a circuit or station for six months, shall have their traveling expenses included in the budget of traveling expenses.

4. The Bureau shall apportion to each effective minister, probationer and recommended supply, on the basis of salary received (house rent not included), his share of the total amount required. The Secretary shall notify him of his apportionment not later than the first of July.

5. The minister or supply, whose apportionment exceeds the amount of his traveling expenses, as estimated by the Bureau, shall pay to the Bureau Treasurer on or before the second day of the Conference session, such excess.

6. The Bureau Treasurer shall pay on or before the last day of the conference session to all the ministers, probationers or supplies (recommended), whose estimated traveling expenses exceed their apportionment, such excess or their pro-rata share of the funds collected.

7. Supernumerary members of this conference, who shall indicate to the Secretary of the Bureau, in writing, not later than the first of June, their expectation of being present at the conference session, shall have their traveling expenses paid within the bounds of the conference and they shall share in the apportionment of the budget of expense, on the basis of the salary received by them in the last year of their effective relation.

8. All members of the conference receiving Special Appointments shall neither share in the apportionment of traveling expenses nor receive from the amount so raised, unless by the special action of the conference at its preceding session.

9. Any member of this conference (or supply) failing to pay at the proper time the amount due from him to this fund, shall be deemed unwilling to meet his fair share of the burden of traveling expenses necessitated by the conference sessions and shall have no claim on the Bureau until such apportionment is paid, with such additional forfeit as the Bureau may determine.

Report of Board of Stewards.

RESOLUTIONS.

FIRST.—We rejoice in the work of the Board of Conference Claimants. It has persistently and carefully urged on pastors and people the duty of caring for Conference Claimants, with the result that there was an increase in 1910 of over $85,000 in the amounts paid by the annual conferences to their own claimants, and the Board is now distributing $19,000 to the needy conferences and to special or necessitous cases this year.

SECOND.—Whereas, the plan of raising seven per cent. of the cash salaries of the Preachers for the support of the Conference Claimants is still new and not fully operative; and, whereas, the Connectional Fund receives five per cent. of this amount, we therefore recommend that asking for the additional amount of one per cent. of the pastor's salary be discontinued.

Third.—We urge that, as far as possible, the amount apportioned to each charge for Conference Claimants be placed in the local budget as a part of ministerial support.

FOURTH.—We recommend that the Treasurer of the Conference be authorized to receive the dividend from the Board of Conference Claimants, and to remit to the Board the Conference percentages.

FIFTH.—We recommend that the funds in the hands of the Board of Stewards be disbursed as follows: seventy per cent to the Annuity Fund and thirty per cent. to the Special Fund.

AMENDMENT TO SECTION FIVE.—The following amendment offerred by F. D. Leete, and referring to Section V. of this report, was adopted:

Inasmuch as other Conferences are distributing from 25 to 100 per cent. of the money received from Conference Claimants on the annuity basis, and since this plan is in harmony both with justice and equity, be it

Resolved. That the Conference Stewards be directed to so distribute not less than 75 per cent. of the sums realized from all sources. This amendment to apply to the distribution of funds of next year, and not the present year.

SETH REED. F. D. LEETE. A. R. JOHNS. C. B. STEELE. S. JENNINGS. S. E. JACKSON. S. W. HORNER.

Sixth.—Resolved, That having considered the request of the Conference to present a sliding scale plan for Conference apportionment, we declare it to be our judgement that no such plan can be devised that will be as satisfactory as the present flat rate apportionment of seven per cent. on the cash salaries of the pastors, with the request that those in special appointments pay one per cent. of their salaries to this fund.

SEVENTH.—Resolved, That an additional column be included in the report of the Board of Stewards, showing the years of service of all Conference Claimants.

G. A. FEE, Secretary.

Rules of Order.

Adopted in 1869, Modified in 1875, and Adopted at Each Session Since.

- 1. The Conference shall meet at $8\frac{1}{2}$ o'clock A. M., and adjourn at 12 M., but may alter the time of meeting and adjourn at its discretion.
- 2. The President shall take the chair precisely at the time to which the Conference stood adjourned. The first half hour of the session shall be devoted to religious services, and thereafter the journals of the preceding day shall be read and approved.
- 3. The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but, in case of an appeal, the question shall be taken without debate.
- 4. He shall appoint all Committees, not otherwise specially ordered by the Conference, but any member may decline serving on more than one Committee at the same time.
- 5. All motions and resolutions introduced by any member shall be reduced to writing, if the President, Secretary, or any member of the Conference requests it.
- 6. When a motion, resolution or report presented is read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference, but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before action or amendment.
- 7. No new motion or resolution shall be made before the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following should intervene, which motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, viz.: Indefinite postponement, lying on the table, reference to a Committee, postponement to any given time, or amendment.
- 8. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the President, to call him to order when he departs from the question, uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when he deems the speaker out of order, or any other member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.
- 9. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address himself to the President.
- 10. No person shall speak more than twice on the same subject, or more than fifteen minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.
- 11. When any motion or resolution shall have passed, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration.
- 12. No member shall absent himself from the services of Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.
- 13. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar of the Conference at the time such question is put by the President, except by leave of Conference, when such member has been necessarily absent.
- 14. Every member who shall be within the bar at the time the question is put shall give his vote, unless the Conference, for special reasons, excuses him.
 - 15. No motion shall be considered unless seconded.
- 16. The Secretary shall keep a journal of the proceedings of the Conference, and, when approved, shall record them in a book provided for that purpose. He shall take charge of the journal and other papers of the Conference, and preserve them with care; suffer no person to take a copy of any paper during the interval of Conference, except with the consent of the Conference; and shall forward the journal and papers to the next Annual Conference.
- 17. A motion to adjourn shall be in order at any time, and shall be decided without debate.
- 18. No preacher shall bring any charge against any member of this Conference until he has first given him information of the same, either by letter or otherwise, ten days in advance, if practicable, so that the accused may have an opportunity for defence
- 19. When any brother intends to object to the passage of another's character, it shall be his duty to hand the name of the person against whom objections are to be made to the President of the Conference.
- 20. Two-thirds of the members present, and voting, may order the previous question on a pending motion.
- [A motion to table an amendment to a resolution does not carry the resolution to the table.]

When weary and languid, when the energies flag and you are completely exhausted and worn out, there is nothing so refreshing and invigorating as

Its revivifying effect will throw off the depression that accompanies exhaustion and nervousness; strengthen and clear the brain that has become tired and confused by overwork and worry, and impart new life and vigor to the entire system.

To Any Minister of the entire world—through the columns of the various religious publications of the entire country, about the new Fox Visible Typewriter, and of our special offer to ministers. Replies from these advertisements have been received from every corner of this country—and from a large number of foreign countries—and hundreds upon hundreds of ministers have taken advantage of our Mr. W. R. Fox's most unusual—and exceedingly liberal—proposition, and have become the possessors of the new Fox Visible Typewriters.

If there is one typewriter more than another that a minister should not buy, it is one of the cheap "rebuilt to sell" typewriters that are being advertised at from $15 to $50. Beware of the "Syndicates" and "Sales Co.'s"—they do not manufacture but deal in second hand and rebuilt typewriters—old models that the manufacturers can not sell. There is only one typewriter that should be considered by any minister, and that is THE BEST. Your work entitles you to this, and, furthermore, the best is always the cheapest in the end.

Will You Let Mr. Fox Help You Buy a Typewriter?

As a minister, and a business man, we appeal to you not to purchase any typewriter, at any price. nor from anyone, no matter how flattering the proposition may seem to you, until you have given us an opportunity to send you for inspection and trial a new Fox Visible Typewriter. This we will do at our own expense—will not even ask you to pay the express charges—and you will not be under the slightest obligation to purchase our typewriter after trial unless you wish to do so.

After trial if you wish to purchase our typewriter—on Mr. Fox's special proposition—you can pay us a little down and the balance at the rate of 20 cents a day—no payments to be made on Sundays or Holidays.

will you bo THIS? We feel that this is "your chance of a lifetime"—it may be your one and only chance. Will you let us help you to come to such a wise decision that there will be no after regret—no financial loss—on your part? If so, fill out the following coupon and mail it today—do it now before you forget it. Address our Mr. W. R. Fox personally.
